Local Intelligence.

The new fire cistern is leaking, and will have to be repaired or recasted. This is unfortunate.

PERSONAL.—Capt. Z. Hunt, a veteran Attorney, from Bellville, Austin county, is in the city, attending District Court.

Hillebrand & Smith are getting a "big run," but that old Bourbon of theirs is good, and no mistake.

City Engineer Turner is progressing with street improvements, as fast as his small force will permit.

The lamp posts have arrived and are being put in position to light up the dark places of the city.

In the District Court, the jury in the case of W. W. Downs vs. Hough and others, returned a verdict in favor of Downs.

Axling & Bergman are equal to the occasion, the more opposition they have, the more apparent is the excellent quality of their liquors.

The fourth story of the McClelland House is being finished. When finished, it will be the largest hotel in the State, except one.

Quite a severe rain storm occurred early yesterday morning accompanied with hail, though we were glad to say not in sufficient amount to injure the growing crop.

The recent rain made the streets quite muddy again. The only evil however, attending it was, that it kept the fair ladies in doors.

We stepped into Moore & Sturgis' yesterday, but found those clever youths entirely too busy to talk to us, so we are without our usual item from them.

Dr. J. C. J. King had another saddle horse stolen Tuesday night. The thieves seem to have a spite at the Doctor, or else they rate highly his knowledge of horse flesh.

The prairie are again one vast bed of beautiful flowers. There is no other land under the sun, half so fair as this beautiful land of ours.

John S. Moore, our city Marshal, has been quite ill for several days, but we are glad to see is again able to appear on the streets, however looking a little the worse for the wear.

Mr. S. Johnson, of the firm of S. Johnson & Co., our newly elected Councilman in the Fourth Ward, bids us say, his official duties will not prevent him from waiting on the crowd who daily throng to his house for the good things of life.

DECIDEDLY COOL.—Yesterday was the reception of "Mine Host," Wilhelm, at his Arctic Boudoir, or Third Street Ice Cream Saloon. Many of his old customers, and we trust as many new ones, dropped in on him during the day, to partake of free ice cream, which was dispensed with a lavish hand. Mr. Wilhelm is now prepared to furnish ice cream during the season.

Amos, the colored porter in the establishment of Marshall & Early, died yesterday very suddenly. He was missed for a few minutes, and when wanted, was called by his employers, but receiving no reply, they, recollecting to have seen him going in the direction of the privy, repaired to the spot, and found him sitting on the seat dead. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

HYMNICAL.—As will be seen by the notice published elsewhere, our good friend Wilhelm, tired of the cares, snares and vicissitudes of a bachelor's life, has followed divine injunction and taken unto himself a wife. We mingle our congratulations with those of his other friends, and say, "Here's to you and your family; may you live long and prosper."

The hop at the McClelland House on Tuesday night was largely attended by both young and old among our party goers. It was just one of those pleasant informal parties, where one goes and feels just as free as the wind, to enjoy himself in every conceivable way. The supper was simply splendid. The hospitality of the proprietress was warmly appreciated, and the young men and maidens made a merry night of it. We would be glad to see these informal reunions of the youth and beauty of the city recur much oftener than they do.

MARRIED.

WILHELM—PICKLEY—At St. David's (Episcopal) Church on the 14th inst., by Rev. Otis Hackett, Mr. G. W. WILHELM, to Miss Ida PICKLEY, all of this city.

We are under many obligations for tickets to the Grand Oratorio Thursday and Friday nights.

We trust that our citizens will turn out en masse and encourage the amateurs by a large house. This is something out of the usual course, and a new step, and one in the right direction and should receive the compliment of a general turnout.

Yesterday the Grand Jury visited the jail, for the purpose of inspecting it. We were invited to accompany them, and have no hesitation in saying, that up to this good hour, we have never spent a more unpleasant half hour in our life, than the one spent in the miserable cage called, by courtesy, a jail. Narrow, ill constructed, badly ventilated and filthy, to a degree almost beyond credulity; and into this miserable den are crowded twenty-nine human beings, whom the courts have not declared, as yet, guilty. Common humanity is shocked, in witnessing the scene. We trust the Grand Jury will make such a return as will stimulate the authorities to build at once a house where the prisoners of the law can be confined securely, without violating the common humanity of our race. The jail is very insecure, with its other bad qualities. There can be no blame attached to the officials having charge of the prisoners, as their condition is as comfortable as it could be made in the spots allotted to the poor unfortunate who are under the ban of the law.

A Welcome to the Southern Baptist Convention.

Ed. Examiner: Please publish the following preamble and resolutions unanimously adopted by the Baptist General Association of Texas, at its last meeting, at Jefferson, Texas, in July, 1873:

WHEREAS, The Southern Baptist Convention proposes to hold its next session in the city of Jefferson and

WHEREAS, The First Baptist Church and the city of Jefferson have offered such magnificent hospitality to the great body of Southern Baptists, therefore, be it

Resolved, That all thanks are due to the city of Jefferson and the First Baptist Church for the interest manifested in this body on behalf of citizens, and that we, the General Baptist Association of Texas, hail with intense pleasure and welcome with joy the coming of the Southern Baptist Convention for the first time in Texas.

Resolved, That we recommend all the churches and district associations within our bounds to send delegates, believing that it will be a great blessing to our members and ministers to mingle with the noble minds and hearts we hope to greet from our sister States in Jefferson, on the 7th of May, 1874.

I take pleasure, as the President of the Baptist General Association of Texas, to extend this cordial greeting to our dear brethren of the Southern Baptist Convention.

We are anxious for them to see more of our Empire State than they can see in the generous city of Jefferson, which is located on the extreme boundary line of Texas.

We want them to see the grand prairies, the fertile valleys and beautiful scenery of Western, Central and Northern Texas.

Our railroad companies have generously tendered to all the delegates a round excursion trip free of charge on all their roads in Texas.

We have arranged a series of Missionary Sabbath Schools and educational mass meetings at Marshall, Tyler, Waco, Corsicana, Dallas, Sherman, Paris and some other important railroad towns within the bounds of the General Association.

Dr. Wm. Cary Crane, President of the Baptist State Convention, with other brethren, will, I presume, arrange for a series of meetings in Southern Texas.

We trust, therefore, that as many of the brethren as possible will spend a few days in seeing the grandest country the sun visits in his long journey around the globe.

We earnestly hope that they may give an impetus to the 55,000 Baptists of Texas that will be felt through all coming generations.

Respectfully,
President Texas Baptist General Association,
Waco University, March 20, 1874.

LUCKETT'S LINIMENT—LIVING WITH NESSSES.

BLUE RIDGE, Falls County Texas, August 15, 1873.

Mr. S. M. Lockett: DEAR SIR—I have been sorely afflicted with Rheumatism for several years, as much so that at times I have not been able to walk without the greatest pain for two and three months together. I have tried every remedy, and been attended on by several good physicians, but have never experienced any relief until I was induced to try "Lockett's Liniment." After using three bottles I find myself entirely well, and I cheerfully give this to the public, hoping that others may see this and profit by my experience, and speedily seek relief in this truly wonderful medicine.

Yet in the highest degree disinfectant and preservative. Scaevola keeps the teeth always healthy and spotless, and the gums ruddy and free from canker.

ABOUT BITTERS.—At certain periods of life a tonic is a necessity; but there is danger in using stimulants that injure organs or digestion while giving temporary relief. To obviate this, and present to the public a tonic free from alcohol or poison, Dr. Green prepared his Oxygenated Bitters, a sure cure for dyspepsia and all kindred complaints. Sold everywhere. Our Changing Bodies.
Our bodies are constantly changing. The dead matter passes off by the bowels and the pores, and the digestion and assimilation supply fresh material. This matter cannot be pure, and consequently the body cannot be kept by the stomach and the secretory organs perform their allotted tasks thoroughly. That they may do so keep them in good working order, with that most efficient of all purgatives, regulating and purifying preparations, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. If you wish your blood to be really the "stream of life," to have your bowels cleared with sound flesh, to be exempt from nervousness and debility, to be clear headed and cheerful, in short, to possess that choicest of human blessings, a sound mind in a sound body, resort to the great vegetable restorative whenever you feel languid, or suffer from indigestion, or are bilious or low spirited, or suffering from any derangement of the animal functions. The relief is immediate, and full rest follows.
